Welcome Start time 8:36am

Address from Headmaster Philabaum

Teacher appreciation goes a long way to help moral in this hard time. We're trying to find ways to be united – creating events has helped us to be together as a community. The work of the PSO has never been more important. We couldn't do it without you – thank you!

Reports

- Fundraising – Malia – just turned in all the boxtops from the office. We've earned $100 so far. Phasing out paper so working on encouraging using the app. $217 earned at Mama's and $264 earned from Song Lynn. Nothing more scheduled this year.
- Treasurer – Alicia Torres shared update on PSO finances.
- Class Coordinators – Lisa - All positions filled. Some classes have room for co-coordinator (but maybe not necessary). Working on getting emails out within 48 hours.
- Teacher Appreciation – Shannon - PSO will provide pies this month for teachers this month. Suggestions for gifts is appreciated. ateteacherappreciation@gmail.com
- Teacher Birthdays – Alisha - Merging November and December, PSO in charge.
- Lunch Program - Erin (presented by Tracie) – everything is going well, people in here have been great about stepping up to take over when there is a need.
- Emergency Lunches – Alicia – 30 unpaid lunches, 10 with 2 emails sent out, 20 with one email sent out. Last email was sent on the 12th with a lot being paid. 2nd round of emails went out last night.
- Refreshments – Ti Na (presented by Tracie) – all on campus scholars received popsicles for historical figure day.
- Copy Program – Brandi – we've had a lot of parents signed up. Two more slots available through December. The teachers love it.

Unfinished Business

- Read-A-Thon Wrap-Up – Nicole – 311 participants (the most ever!) 60075.17 minutes $11,771.50 raised. It went really well! Winners are getting their e-gift cards as they reach out. 12 winners total – 1 from each grade for minutes and 1 winner from each grade who raised the most money. Winners get a pizza party for their class, distance winners will get a gift certificate so they can also participate.

- Food Drive – Sherita – going well. Started last Friday going through this Friday. Distance learning drop off Thursday morning 8:30 to 9am and Friday 1:30pm to 2pm

New Business

- Virtual Family Game Night - Julie – This Friday, 15 minute games. Posted on Facebook events with zoom links.
- Snowstorm – December 2nd through December 11th. PSO will collect funds through a link and also with a box at the front. We encourage parents to do this instead of getting teachers individual gifts. Donate here and the money gets split between all the teachers.
- Run the Virtues – Virtual this year. February 27th. Still for all three schools and anyone who wants to join. Our turn to run the financials. Great for making money and building community.
